EASY GIFTING FOR YOU

With only little information of USER and the relationship of the person who'd receive the gift, we will narrow down the options and try to provide the best choice of all.

Our users are the people who want to save time looking for the match of their gift but want to give a good impression to the recipient who will receive the gift.

For this challenge, we pretended to have David Jones as a client.

Why? To help customers narrow their choice for the selection of gifts.

When? On the occasion of the Christmas promotion.
